stressed skin

How to introduce MultiVitamin Power products?

MultiVitamin Power products help skin fight back as stress occurs, helping to prevent stress-induced skin aging. Each power-packed formula restores and protects to rescue stressed skin.

Are MultiVitamin Power products right for your client?

When skin becomes stressed, we typically see signs like:

- Dryness
- Dullness
- Fine lines
- Sagging

When can your client use MultiVitamin Power products in their routine?

MultiVitamin Power formulas can be used day or night followed by an SPF in the daytime.

How can I talk about the difference between Dermalogica's powerful vitamins in the MultiVitamin Power franchise?

MultiVitamin formulas address skin concerns by delivering targeted actives that work to nourish stressed skin, fight environmental stressors, and boost resilience. By understanding how each ingredient addresses signs of skin stress, we can fully appreciate the power of MultiVitamin formulas in de-stressing and promoting radiant skin.
